THE BRITISH CRISIS.
UNUSUAL LIBERAL WHIP.
FOR TO-DAY'S BUSINESS.
EARLY DIVISION PREDICTED.

The O'Brienites. If the Labour party joins Mr. Redmond, its members will not improve their position in the country.

The "Daily Chronicle" believes that everybody will prove more reasonable next week than now.

MORE TREASURY BILLS.

LONDON, Feb. 19. It appears that the Master of Elbunk, Chief Librarian, has issued a Whip for business on Monday, adding: "An important division is possible before the debate on the Address in Reply is reached."

This is unusual and unexplained.

Feb. 20.

There is an indication that the early division foreshadowed by the Liberal Whip relates to a resolution enabling the House to deal comprehensively with the Budget at the first business of the session.

THE KING'S SPEECH.

The King has signed the Speech from the Throne determined upon by Ministers.

IN A CLEFT STICK.

POSITION OF ALL PARTIES.

Mr. William Robson, Attorney-General, speaking at Newcastle in reply to criticisms that the Government was in a cleft stick, said: "While party is not in a cleft stick?" He proceeded to discuss Mr. Baldwin's difficulties if the Government resigned, and Mr. Balfour were summoned to office.

Mr. William Robson contended that the Opposition was in a much more embarrassing position than the Government.

DEALING WITH THE LORDS.
SWIFT AND DECISIVE ACTION.

LONDON, Feb. 19. Mr. Herbert Samuel, Postmaster-General, speaking at the Eighty Club dinner, said that the action of the Government regarding the House of Lords would be swift, courageous, and decisive.

THE CABINET'S DECISION.

MR. KEIR HARDY'S COMMENT.

Mr. Keir Hardy, M.P. (Labour), interviewed at Cumnock yesterday, said that he had an impression recently that guarantees concerning the House of Lords had been obtained, inasmuch as Mr. Asquith, the Prime Minister, had previously declared that otherwise he would not assume office. That impression was strengthened when the Cabinet minutes were filed.

He added on Thursday that the House of Commons would be asked to pass the Budget for the trust to lurch in dealing with the House of Lords. This, he said, being his policy, was a breach of faith with the country on the part of Mr. Asquith.

Mr. Keir Hardy argued that resolutions, embodying the principles of the Veto Bill would suffice to make the passing by the House of Commons of the Budget dependent on the House of Lords accepting those resolutions.

WHAT LABOUR WOULD DO.

REBUKE BY THE "TIMES."

The "Times" writes that if Mr. Keir Hardy's motion that supplies be referred with the King's consent to compete with the House of Lords to commit suicide, is in view of constitutional politics entailed by socialist members of the House of Commons, the crisis has rendered the public service by bringing it to light.

MR. ASQUITH'S PREDICAMENT.
WHAT DOES "SAFEGUARDS" MEAN?

ANOTHER ELECTION PROBABLE.

LONDON, Feb. 18. The statement issued by Mr. G. M. Birnes, Chairman of the Labour Party, is the more noteworthy after Mr. Keir Hardy's recent declaration that the Labour party would support the Government whatever course it might take in regard to the Budget and the veto of the House of Lords.

The "Morning Leader" (Liberal) writes: "It is now clear that Mr. Asquith cannot remain in office unless he tells the King that the whole of his composite party requires the Veto Bill as the immediate result."

It is also reported that the party will support the Budget if the Veto Bill is not passed.

The "Daily Chronicle" (Liberal) writes: "The election in the north of England was fought upon Mr. Asquith's Albert Hall declaration."

The "Freeman's Journal" (Nationalist) states that there is every probability of another general election being held six weeks or two months hence.

The "Daily Chronicle" (Liberal) writes: "Ministers cannot constitutionally give the King the advice which Mr. Barnes suggests, for the simple reason that the whole proceedings were illegal."

AN ILLEGAL EXECUTION.
A BULGARIAN BANDITS END.

LONDON, Feb. 18. Dings, a Bulgarian bandit chief, was recently sentenced to death at Salonic and hanged.

It is now stated in Athens that the court-martial was held in secret in accordance with a bill which has not yet become law, and the whole proceedings were illegal.

EARTHQUAKE.

A MEDITERRANEAN VISITATION.

LONDON, Feb. 18. An earthquake shock of 14 seconds' duration has been experienced in Crete. The dome of the mosque at Canosa collapsed, and many buildings were damaged.

Shocks have also been felt at Malta, Sicily, and Foggia in Italy.

TAXATION OF IRELAND.

MANY DIVISIONS THREATENED.

DUBLIN MERCHANTS' OPPOSITION.

LONDON, Feb. 18. It is reported that Messrs. O'Brien and Balfour will insist on dividing the House of Commons upon every item in the Budget that will mean increased taxation in Ireland.

The Dublin Chamber of Commerce has passed a resolution condemning the reintroduction of the Budget as imposing on Ireland undue taxation.

RESOLUTION NOT WANTED.

MR. KITCHENER NOT APPOINTED.

LONDON, Feb. 18. The information published by the "Standard" that Lord Kitchener has been appointed Governor-General of India, is officially denied.

Many advanced upon all securities, N.S.W. Most de Plate, D. & Co., Ltd., 74 Castlereagh-street, Sydney, and 17 Hunter-street, Newcastle. Busse, Sargent, G. M., Adm.

COUNTRY NEWS.

SOUTH COAST.

CLIFTON, Sunday. Good progress is being made at the Clifton new mill, and a large number of men have now got into position. Sinking operations in connection with the new shaft will shortly be resumed. The shaft is now down a depth of 100 ft., and an additional 200 feet will complete it.

GEOGRAPHY, Sunday.

Mr. Ashley Harding, aged 75 years, died at his residence on Saturday.

The application for a general land title, 323 Pitt-street, for part of the estate of Mr. J. Russell, has just been approved.

The application was made on 27 August, 1898.

WOLLONGONG, Saturday.

At a meeting of the Mount Kembla Miners' Lodge, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mr. W. Jenkins;

Secretary, Mr. J. Russell; delegate, Mr. E. Smith; auditors, Messrs. M. Ford and D. Smith; treasurer, Mr. G. Ramsay; Vice-chairman, G. Phillips; J. Atkinson, and G. McLeod.

There are at present about 30 or 40 miners employed at the site of the intended water supply dam on the Cordeaux, and several buildings are being erected.

RUN OVER BY TRAIN.

SUNDAY. A report has been received of a railway accident between Cabotown and Landsborough.

A man named James Chapman was hit by a train while walking along a conveyor belt to the ship.

The train of wagons would not run on the jetty, but had to be driven into the water to load. Greater depth in shipping, and less strain on the jetty, which would admit of a lighter structure, would be obtained by this design.

HOSPITALS.

BROKEN HILL, Sunday. The number of patients admitted to Broken Hill Hospital during January was 63, and the institution had 35 remaining on January 31. There were 106 cases of typhoid in the hospital.

TENTERFIELD, Sunday. The ballot for the annual election was held yesterday. Mr. G. W. Beetham, president; Mr. J. W. Forrest, secretary; Mr. W. F. Stewart, treasurer; and Messrs. W. Warner, W. F. Thomas, E. P. Clark, H. J. Coston, J. Walker, J. F. Chick, H. J. Coston, J. Denough, and Rev. J. M. Stoops, committee; Drs. Flashman and Watt, medical officers.

BYRON BAY, Saturday.

Mrs. Bumby, a middle-aged woman, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at a farmer's place near Tenterfield. She had come from Sydney, and was employed in a tailor's shop until the time of her death. A magistrate inquest was held.

BROKEN HILL, Sunday.

Alderman T. Hall, who has resigned from the council, speaks of the election of Mayor as one of the reasons for his withdrawal, seven of whom represent the Labor party.

These seven did not win, and selected Alderman Harvey as Mayor by a vote of 12 to 11, and elected four aldermen out of 12 elected the Mayor.

BOMBARA, Saturday.

In less than two years 100 tons of rails have been supplied to the mining industry, and the cost of the material per ton is £12 per ton.

COOMA, Saturday.

Mr. E. M. de Burgh, of the Works Department, has paid a visit of inspection to the Murrambridge line and the mine immediately adjacent to the station for the municipality.

He is to furnish a report.

DUNGOG, Saturday.

Prior to his departure from Dungog, Mr. W. Thompson, the rector of the Anglican Church, was entertained by the members of the Hope of Williams Lodge, I.O.G.T., and provided with a good luncheon.

DOORRIGO, Saturday.

For some months the mail service to here from Tyrrington has been an unsatisfactory condition.

After the arrival of the sulky service allowed for by the Postal Department, on several occasions valuable mail had to be left in a box at the post office through the want of the mailman to carry all the stuff.

In response to urgent representations, the department has substituted a four-wheeler for the service.

GOOLBURN, Sunday.

Diaphritis has reappeared at Kenmore. One died in the hospital on Saturday, and two others were admitted to the hospital suffering from the disease.

KEMPTON, Saturday.

On Friday night the Kempsey Musical Society held its annual concert.

Mr. W. Thompson, the rector of the Anglican Church, was entertained by the members of the Hope of Williams Lodge, I.O.G.T., and provided with a good luncheon.

ORANGE, Saturday.

The address and testimonial which was to be sent to Mr. J. C. Scott, the widow of Mrs. Scott, has been now to be presented to the widow. The testimonial amounts to about £150.
